2. In a large resealable bag , toss together the paprika , turmeric , cumin , cayenne , cinnamon , cloves , cardamom , salt , ginger , saffron , garlic powder , and coriander
3. Mix well
4. Add the lamb to the bag , and toss around to coat well
5. Refrigerate at least 8 hours , preferably overnight
6. Heat 1 tablespoon of olive oil in a large , heavy bottomed pot over medium-high heat
7. Add 1 / 3 of the lamb , and brown well
8. Remove to a plate , and repeat with remaining lamb
9. Add onions and carrots to the pot and cook for 5 minutes
10. Stir in the fresh garlic and ginger
11. Continue cooking for an additional 5 minutes
12. Return the lamb to the pot and stir in the lemon zest , chicken broth , tomato paste , and honey
13. Bring to a boil , then reduce heat to low , cover , and simmer for 1 1 / 2 to 2 hours , stirring occasionally , until the meat is tender
14. If the consistency of the tagine is too thin , you may thicken it with a mixture of cornstarch and water during the last 5 minutes
